The Pennsylvania GAZETTE.

Containing the freſheſt Advices Foreign and Domeſtick.

LONDON, October 4.

OUR Advices from Paris mention nothing but the great Scarcity of Corn in France. A few Days ſince the Government order'd half of all the Grain they found in all the Convents and other Religious Communities in the City to be taken from them, promiſing to reſtore as much in new Corn within ſix Weeks; the Parliament has publiſh'd an Arret forbidding the Brewing of Beer for a whole Year to come; and the Intendant at Paris has order'd all the Farmers and other Country People within that Generality, to bring all their Corn of the Harveſts of paſt Years to the uſual Markets, except as much as is neceſſary for their Subſiſtence for ſix Weeks. Beſides all theſe Meaſures, they were forced a few Days ſince to poſt Detachments of Soldiers in the Markets of Paris, to keep the People in order.

Letters from French Flanders adviſe, that the Marquis de Livry is arrived there, in order to take upon him the Command of the Troops in that Province. The Garriſon of Dunkirk has been reinforced with 12 Battallions, and the Garriſons of Calais, Gravelines, Berqueſt, Vinox, and Boulogne, have likewiſe been augmented. It is reported that the Militia of the ſeveral Provinces of France is to be aſſembled next Month.

Orders are ſent, we hear, to the Britiſh Miniſter at the Hague, to demand the Supplies the States General have ſtipulated by Treaty to furniſh Great-Britain with in caſe of an Attack.

By private Letters from Holland we are inform'd, that the generality of People there are of Opinion that a War with France is almoſt unavoidable.

Octo. 20. By the laſt Letters from Jamaica, by the Way of Briſtol, we have the following Account of Capt. John Colt, who went from that City about ten Months ſince to St. Kit's: He there fitted out a Sloop Privateer to cruize off the Iſland of Cuba, where he took two Spaniſh Prizes; and going to Jamaica with them, was chaſed by a Spaniſh Man of War, who intended to retake the Prizes. At this Time Capt. Colt had but twelve Men on board his own Sloop, the reſt being on board the Prizes; and ſeeing there was no Poſſibility of getting off with the Prizes, by the Conſent of his Men, reſolv'd to lay by for the Man of War, and ſend the Prizes away for Jamaica, which was accordingly done; and on the Approach of the Man of War, Capt. Colt gave her a Broadſide, which was return'd, and after a ſtout Engagement, the Sloop was taken, but the Prizes got clear. Capt. Colt and his Men were carried Priſoners to St. Jago de Cuba, but were ſo fortunate in the Night as to make their eſcape in a Yawl which they cut out of the Harbour, in which they arriv'd ſafe at Jamaica, where Capt. Colt fitted out another Privateer, in which he took a Spaniſh Snow, bound from the Carracas for La Vera Cruz, and carried her into St. Ann's, on the North ſide of Jamaica.

BOSTON, January 2. 1740,1.

Since the Account of the Damages ſuſtain'd in the late Storm inſerted in our laſt, we have received the following further Advices, viz. That Capt. Huſſey in a Snow bound hither from the Bay of Honduras was caſt away on the Back of Cape-Cod, the Cargo ſav'd but the Veſſel loſt: That Capt. Weeks from Virginia and Capt. Johnſon bound thither, are both aſhore; That Capt. Barber in a large Sloop belonging to Providence, bound from this Place to Rhode-Iſland and Providence, with a Cargo valued at Six Thouſand Pounds, was caſt away, and both Veſſel and Cargo loſt.

We are alſo inform'd. That a ſmall Sloop bound from Connecticut to this Place (which ſail'd with the other Veſſels which came out of the Vineyard) ſtriking upon the Bar off that Part of Eaſtham called Noſſet, in the ſame Storm, the Men expected every Minute when ſhe would ſtave in Pieces, and therefore quitted her, and with much Difficulty got aſhore: But ſo it happen'd, that by the force of the Wind and Sea, the Sloop drove quite over the Bar; and to the ſurprize of every one, got into a ſmall Baſon under the Land, where ſhe lay ſecur'd from the violence of the Storm, and was ſaved with her Cargo.

We hear likewiſe, That Capt. Merick in a Veſſel from the Bay of Honduras, ſail'd alſo out of the Vineyard with the reſt of the Veſſels, but being further to the Eaſtward than ſome others in the Storm, had Sea-room ſufficient to prevent running aſhore; but by the Violence of the Wind and Waves, his Veſſel was render'd ſo very leaky, as that in all probability, ſhe would ſoon have foundred with all the Men on board; but in the midſt of their Diſtreſs and Danger, it happened that Capt. Sherburn in a Snow bound from Barbados to New Hampſhire, came up with them, & took them all on board, but was unfortunately caſt away upon the Iſle of Sholes, and every Soul on board loſt.

We hear that tho' nine or ten Veſſels were caſt away on the back of the Cape, no more than three of the Men loſt their Lives.

Capt. Tilden's Sloop which was drove aſhore at Scituate in the Storm, was ſtove to pieces in the bad Weather laſt Week, the Cargo and Rigging ſav'd.

We hear that Capt. Titcomb in a Sloop bound to Newbury from this Place, meeting with the late violent Storm off in our Bay, was wonderfully preſerv'd from Shipwrack upon Nehant Rocks: The Weather growing very thick and Stormy, and not knowing what Danger they might be near, a ſtout and experienc'd Coaſter being on board, went out upon the Bowſprit, notwithſtanding the Severity of the Storm, to keep a good Lookout; after his being there ſome ſhort Time, he diſcovered the ſaid Rocks juſt a Head; upon which he call'd out, and they immediately let go both Anchors, and brought her to, within a little more than her length off the Rocks, where ſhe rid out the Storm; and tho' the Men were excedingly fatigu'd yet their Lives were ſav'd, as was the Sloop, which was new, and alſo her Cargo which was worth ſeveral Thouſand Pounds, being great Part Engliſh Goods, Rigging, &c.

They are ſince ſafely arrived at Newbury.

Laſt Week a Coaſting Sloop, bound hither from the Eaſtward, having been out near a Month, and her Proviſions ſpent, came to Anchor near Lovel's Iſland, where the People went aſhore to refreſh themſelves and get ſome Stores: the mean while, a great Body of Ice driving down with the Tide, parted her Cables; ſo that ſhe drove off toward the Sea, without one Perſon on Board; and before they could have Opportunity to go out after her, the Storm we had on Friday laſt drove her upon the Land, and ſtove her to Pieces.

Our Harbour is quite froſe up, ſo that Men, Horſes and Sleds come over the Ice from Dorcheſter, Cambridge, Charleſtown, &c. Such a ſevere Seaſon has not been known theſe many Years.

Piſcataqua, Jan. 2.

On the 26th of laſt Month we had a violent Storm of Wind and Rain, in which was caſt away, on the South Side of the Iſle of Shoals, the Snow Eunice, Charles Sherburne, from Barbados bound to this Place, the Lives and Cargo totally loſt. As ſoon as the melancholy News reach'd here, a Schooner was ſent to bring over the Bodies, (which were eight, being Part of the dead Crew) who are to be decently Interr'd this Day.

NEW-YORK, Jauuary 19.

Friday laſt arrived here Capt. Wells, in 8 Days from Bermudas, by whom we hear, that about 6 Weeks ago a Veſſel bound from England to South-Carolina, touch'd at Bermudas, having but 27 Days Paſſage from the Iſle of Wight to that Place; the Maſter of which related, that he came out in Company with Lord Cathcart, Sir Chaloner Ogle, and his Fleet, conſiſting of 36 Sail of the Line and 70 Tranſports, Fire Ships, &c. And that he bore them Company as far as the Weſtern Iſlands.

A Brigt. bound from Jamaica to Philadelphia, was lately caſt away at Bermudas; ſhe run on the Rocks by Caſtle Harbour, where ſhe bilged and parted her Cable, and drove from the Rocks, and ſunk in 16 Fathom Water; the Maſter and Mariners ſav'd their Lives, and ſome Money with much Difficulty; we hear that ſhe was a ſingle-deck Brigt. and belonged to Philadelphia.

The ſame Day arrived here the Brigt. Jamaica Pacquet, Capt. Boyd from Jamaica; in his Paſſage he met with a Spaniſh Privateer (ſuppos'd to be the ſame that took Capt. Hinman) who fir'd ſeveral Shot into him; but the Brigt, outſailing the Privateer, he got clear.

The ſame Day arrived here Capt. Vaughan in five Weeks from Jamaica, by whom we have Advice, that Admiral Vernon with his Fleet was ſtill at Jamaica, having received Orders from home not to ſtir from thence on any Account till he ſhould be reinforc'd, but remain there and protect the Iſland; that they have accordingly made ſeveral additional Works at Jamaica, and have laid a Boom croſs the Harbour, wherein the Admiral lies with 8 Sail of the Line.

All the Tranſports which ſail'd from North-America arrived at Jamaica the 26th of November, except Capt. Goff's Company in a Snow from Boſton, Capt. Waterhouſe, Maſter, who not being yet arrived they are in ſome Pain for.

We have Advice alſo that Capt. Warren in the Squirrel, cruiſing off St Jago de Cuba, met with a French Sloop which had been Trading at that Port, but pretended to Trade to Cape Francois; but on the Examination of the Men, they differing in their Accounts, it was found on the Evidence of ſome of them, that they came firſt from Louganne, but at that Time belonged to St. Jago, and was laden by the Spaniards; that the Capt. of the Sloop on Sight of the Man of War took her for a Spaniſh Cruiſer, but however got out her Bagg with Letters ready to ſink, which he accordingly did on diſcovery that it was an Engliſh Man of War, reſerving only ſome material ones from Don Blaſs, the Governor of St. Jago, and the Governour of the Havana, to Monſr. De la Naſe, at Louganne, which were artfully hid under her Fore Peek, where they were found on the diſcovery of ſome of the Men. She has between 13 and 14,000 pieces of Eight on Board, beſides Hides and Tobacco.------ The Money was ſent on Board by the Governour of St. Jago, with a Guard of Soldiers, which remain'd till the Sloop ſail'd, and was intended to buy Proviſions for the Spaniſh Fleet and Forces at the Havana and Carthagena, whence they write that they are in ſo great want as not able to ſubſiſt, nor to put to Sea, ſeveral having already periſhed with Hunger in thoſe Places.

Alſo that the Sea Horſe Man of War has taken a large Spaniſh Ship of about 150 Tons and 16 Carriage Guns, coming from Ferrol; and it is ſaid this Ship had on Board ſeveral large Guns for the new Fortifications raiſing at Porto Bello, which were all carried ſafe into Jamaica.

They write from Jamaica, that a Ship was arrived there in 6 Weeks from London, by whom came Letters to the Admiral, adviſing, that Lord Cathcart would certainly ſail for Jamaica in three or four Days after the Ship, with the Fleet and Troops promiſed: And therefore ordering the Admiral to continue in Harbour with his Fleet.

By a Veſſel from South Carolina we hear, that a terrible Fire broke out at Charleſtown, whereby, in about 7 Hours time, the Wind being high, upwards of 300 Houſes were intirely burnt down to the Ground. The Fire, it is ſaid, began in a Hatter's Houſe there.

It is reported that the Veſſel ſome time ſince mentioned to be founder'd at Sea, was one Capt. Hinton in a Ber-

Bermudas Sloop from Philadelphia, and two of the Men were taken up at Sea, all the reſt having periſhed.

PHILADELPHIA.

Laſt Wedneſday, to the great Grief of all Enemies of Spain, was ſpread about the Town, a Rumour of Lord Cathcart's Expedition being laid aſide; and the Troops from hence in a deplorable Condition at Jamaica, four hundred in Hoſpital there, and the reſt in miſerable Circumſtances: But to our Relief, laſt Friday arrived Letters from our Officers in that Iſland, dated the 3d. & 4th of December, which give us Opportunity, from better Evidence, to affirm, that Wenſday's Rumour is falſe; that the Troops which Embark'd from this Province have kept their Health beyond all Expectation, but one man being dead out of the whole; That they hourly expected Lord Cathcart; And ſome of the lateſt Letters ſay that Sir Chaloner Ogle's Squadron, with the Tranſports, was then in Sight of the Iſland. The ſame Letters mention that Capt. Seth Drummond, of the George Privateer, of this place had taken a very conſiderable Prize after a hot and bloody Engagement of five Hours, and the Loſs of fifteen of his Men. That Capt. Drummond had carried his Prize into Port Antonio, but intended to bring her round to Kingſton.

We hear from New-York, that on the 22d Inſt. at Night, a Sloop arrived there in 27 Days from St. Chriſtophers, with Advice that the Men of War and Tranſports left that Iſland the 27th of December bound to Jamaica; that Lord Cathcart died two Days before at Dominica, and that the Command devolv'd on General Wentworth, There were 10,000 Land Troops in the Fleet.

The following is a Liſt of the Men of War, viz.

We hear from Bucks County, that the Delaware broke up in the late Thaw; and brought down the Ice of 100 Miles with it, which ſtopp'd about 3 Miles below Trenton, and is thrown in Heaps from thence 12 Miles upwards, and near 20 foot high. That in ſome Places the River is turn'd out of its Bed, and flows over the low Lands, doing great Damage. The Water roſe in ſome Places 30 foot.

We hear that Admiral Vernon has wrote to the Governors of the Northern Colonies, deſiring they would not ſuffer any Veſſels to clear out, without giving Bond to return Certificates that they have not delivered their Cargoes at any of the French or Dutch Settlements; leſt the French and Spaniſh Fleets, who are in great Want, ſhould by their Means be ſupply'd with Proviſions.
